Insulated Glass: A specialized glass product consisting of two or more glass panes separated by a sealed air or gas-filled space, providing enhanced thermal insulation and sound reduction.

Features

1.Energy saving:With heat insulation performance, the heat transfer coefficient is much lower than that of single glass.

2.Noise reduction: Excellent sound insulation performance, which can effectively reduce outdoor noise entering the room through windows.

3.With anti-condensation, reducing cold radiation and safety performance.

4.High wind pressure resistance.

5.The coated glass film layer located in the hollow cavity will not fall off.
